

Limoncino Decanter with glasses in Gift Box

OUR ROOTS

The tradition of herbal liquors dates back to ancient recipes created by the Franciscan Friars. These, as well as many other products, are the result of traditions preserved intact for centuries.

Go through this land from different profiles and multiple souls is like going into a new dimension, where spiritual suggestions, artistic testimonies and environmental excellence merge into a harmonious balance.

Antica Valle Francescana It is headquartered in the town of Bastia Umbra in the province of Perugia, a few kilometers from the center of Assisi, right in the middle of “green heart of Italy”, the Umbria region.

Assisi is part of Subasio Regional Park, a popular destination for international tourists and a natural environment of great value permeated by an intense mystical atmosphere linked to Franciscan spirituality.

Immerse yourself in the tranquility of its rolling countryside, lost in the soft colors of its landscapes straight out of a Renaissance fresco it is like agreeing to the secret rhythm of a world in which man and the quality of his life are shared common values.

Limoncino Decanter with glasses in Gift Box

Made By: Antica Valle Francescana

Alcohol: 30%

Composition: Alcohol, sugar, infusion of lemon peels (2%), natural flavourings and colouring (E5)

Tasting notes: This Limoncello is bright lemon yellow in colour, with an intense aroma of fresh lemons. On the palate, it is powerful but perfectly balanced, with the bitterness of the lemon peel in equilibrium with the alcohol and a touch of sweetness.

Food pairing: served cold, as an aperitif or digestive, and it can become a pleasant thirst-quenching drink if added to club soda. It is also excellent with champagne and Prosecco to prepare long-drinks and it is great on ice cream, fruit salads, and fresh strawberries.

Strong thirty years experience, the company "Antica Valle Francescana srl" offers a line of liqueurs and spirits of excellent quality, combining the ancient Umbrian tradition with modern market trends.

Located in the Valley of Assisi, the green heart of Italy, l'Antica Valle Francescana is a young and dynamic company that produces classic liqueurs (including bitters, nocino liqueur and limoncello) in full respect of the traditions of their land.

A close-knit team with years of work experience and animated by a passion for good things, done right, how they "used to be".

ACCOLADES:

Tony Aspler: 91 points

Deep lemon colour with a lime tint; intense lemon blossom and lemon zest nose; lemon candy flavour with zesty lemony acidity that prolongs the flavour and balances the honeyed sweetness. Great length on the palate.
