

2019 Serbal Viognier Tupungato, Mendoza Argentina

The Winery

A very pretty estate with vineyards and fruit trees is located in the Uco Valley, where it used to be Estancia Atamisque. The estate was purchased in 2006 by a Frenchman, John Du Monceau, who fell in love with the place and decided to settle there with his wife Chantal. Bodega Atamisque's construction began in 2006, and the first harvest was performed in 2007. From the very beginning, the respect for nature has been emphasized. The winery's surroundings have remained intact with their natural flora, including the indigenous bush atamisque, chañar, piquillo, cactus and many other varieties. Besides, the catalpa tree that grows in the estate gave origin to the name of the Premium wines line.

The production focuses on Premium wines, using first quality French oak (Taransaud, Demptos) and reaching impressive fruity wines with long aftertaste and not so high alcohol content.

ACCOLADES for 2018 Vintage:

Wine Align: 88 points from Michael Godel

“A viognier high on citrus and notable for tangerine though curiously more about flavour than aromatics. Sharp, tangy and calcareously salty with proper sour edging and plenty of energy at the entry level. Drink 2018-2020.” Tasted November 2018.

Decanter : 88 points

A robust yet polished Viognier with nicely defined peach fruit bisected by a lean streak of salty acidity. Tasted July 2019
