Ian Macleod Distillers
Est. 1933

Leonard J Russell Sr., the company's founder, was a firm believer in the value of independence. Beholden to no single distiller, he bought only those whiskies which met his own and his customers' exacting standards. Both clearly had good taste, because more than 80 years down the line, Ian Macleod Distillers has built up an enviable portfolio of premium quality spirits and is proud brand proprietor of Glengoyne, Tamdhu, Isle of Skye and Smokehead Scotch whiskies to name but a few.

The world's 10th largest Scotch Whisky Company, they currently produce and sell over 15 million bottles of spirits every year. Now in its third generation and with an ever-growing portfolio of well-known and much-loved whisky, gin, vodka, rum and liquor brands to its name.

Ian Macleod Distillers is one of the most widely respected Scottish independent family firms in the spirits industry.

Dun Bheagan Regional Collection of Rare Vintage Single Malts

'Every Cask Handpicked and Nosed By Our Malt Team'

Aimed at the malt aficionado, the award-winning Dun Bheagan Collection comprises a fine selection of single cask and small batch single malts from the Speyside, Highland and Islay whisky regions.

Matured in traditional oak casks at their distillery of origin, each cask is handpicked and nosed by our malt team prior to bottling. Bottled the traditional way, straight from the cask, all the malts in the Dun Bheagan Collection are unchillfiltered and natural in colour for a richer, smoother taste.

ACCOLADES:

Tony Aspler—92 points

“Coppery-bronze in colour; smoky, toasty, iodine nose with a note of salted caramel; rich, mouth-filling, flavours of roasted hazelnut, orange zest, smoke with oak spice; great length.” Tasted July 2021

Dean Tudor—92 points

“Extremely intense, bottled straight from the cask. Small batch. Eight years old. Some herbal complexity with strong floral notes makes this a real treat. Smokey peaty all the way...could be challenging for some. 43% ABV. Good value.” Tasted August 2021

David Lawrason—92 points

“This pours fairly deep gold-amber. It has intense, classic Islay aromas of iodine, kelp, sea salt, peanut shell, cantaloupe fruitiness and caramel. It is very smooth, almost creamy in texture, dry and not as hot as expected. The length is excellent, the finish is notably smoky/peaty.” Tasted October 2021
