Phenix Anis Liqueur (Kosher)

Made By: Moses Taieb

Alcohol: 45%

Distillation: Following a tradition dating back to the beginning of the century, the anise seeds of the Phénix are distilled in a traditional steam still, in accordance with the rules of the art: they bathe for several weeks in an extra neutral alcohol grading more than 90 ° then poured into copper stills.

Composition: Sugar, Anis extract 2 per thousand and distilled Anis seeds

Tasting notes:

Nose: Anis aroma (black licorice)

Colour: transparent

Palet: fresh in mouth with Anis aromas

Food pairing: Drink alone or with the traditional Kemia (green spicy stuffed olive) or with a glass of water on the side

The History:

“Le Phenix Distillery”, founded in 1860 in Algiers, produced its eponymous aniseed aperitif until the arrival of Moise Taieb during the 1940’s. As founder of “La Concorde Distillery” and the “Universal” beverages company in Algiers, he became a key player on the North African spirits market. In the early 1970’s, with the acquisition of the “Louis Thiviolet Distillery” in Roanne, he began specializing in the production of kosher alcohol. In 1979, his son, Georges Taieb took over the Clovis Lesieutre company and gave it a considerable boost by setting up in France, Italy and Japan the Scotch Whiskey “Yoni Brother’s”, a brand he created and whose production he managed in Scotland.

It was in 1993, the year in which Georges Taieb acquired the famous “Distillerie Le Phénix”, that the father and son were crowned European leaders on the kosher wines and spirits market. Georges, who has headed the group of companies, continues to work on developing kosher wines, champagnes and spirits and is now able to offer a comprehensive range of over 180 items.
